PULSE

A word from God

"For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive by the Spirit," 1 Peter 3:18

What a wonderful message Easter brings to the world. Christ died for sins once for all... The song writer Samuel Trevor Francis wrote the old hymn 'O The Deep, Deep Love of Jesus'. A line in the first verse kind of tells it all, 'O the deep, deep love of Jesus, Vast, unmeasured, boundless, free!' This is our God. The verse continues, 'Rolling as a mighty ocean in its fullness over me.'

We at ANTELOPE SPRINGS CHURCH wish you the most blessed and memorable Easter Sunday week-end!

Going Deep-Growing Wide:

- Daily keep your commitment to study the Bible, pray, look for ways to serve and show your faith.
- Remember the weekly memory verse-apply it to your life. Read each of them again this week as a way of reinforcing them on our minds
- Remember to look for ways to influence the five people you have committed to pray for.

What's Happening:

But most of all bring your desire to have a great time with others honoring God in cleaning up our place of worship.

7-0-7 High School Ministry

- This past Tuesday evening the HS director, Eric Joppa took on a whole new look. He shaved his head and eye brows. His challenge to the students was to bring their friends to 7-0-7. If more then 50 showed up he would get out the razor. 65 youth came out in force. The jury is out on whether the new look is an improvement or not. Maybe you would like to get involved with our young people. 7-0-7 is looking for energetic adults wanting to make a difference in the lives of a young person.
