

A word from God

"Brethren, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for them is for their salvation."
Romans 10:1

The Apostle Paul had a deep burden in his heart for the people of Israel because he knew they were holding on to beliefs that kept them from knowing and accepting Jesus. As I look at our church family and our community I am reminded that we need this same fire burning in each of our hearts. On my desk is the chest that contains the names of your 'five', those you are praying for to have a personal relationship with our Lord. These are the ones Jesus spoke of when He told us to "go into all the world and make disciples, first to our Jerusalem..." Does God have a desire that they come to Him or has He written them off to eternal punishment? According to His Word He wants all to come to salvation. This is one prayer we can and must make regularly, that 'my five, your five, our five' believe and are saved. May I strongly urge each of you to 'beg' Jesus for their salvation. Don't stop! Make it a daily priority.
